Tower '73

Assemblies, absence lists, football games, and the expression on the face of the teacher whose test you just blew. Your fallwinterspring, those things you liked and disliked, worked for and against. From beginning to end to new beginning — a continuous operation. This is a record of one beginning and ending, and all of the things in between that made it unique.

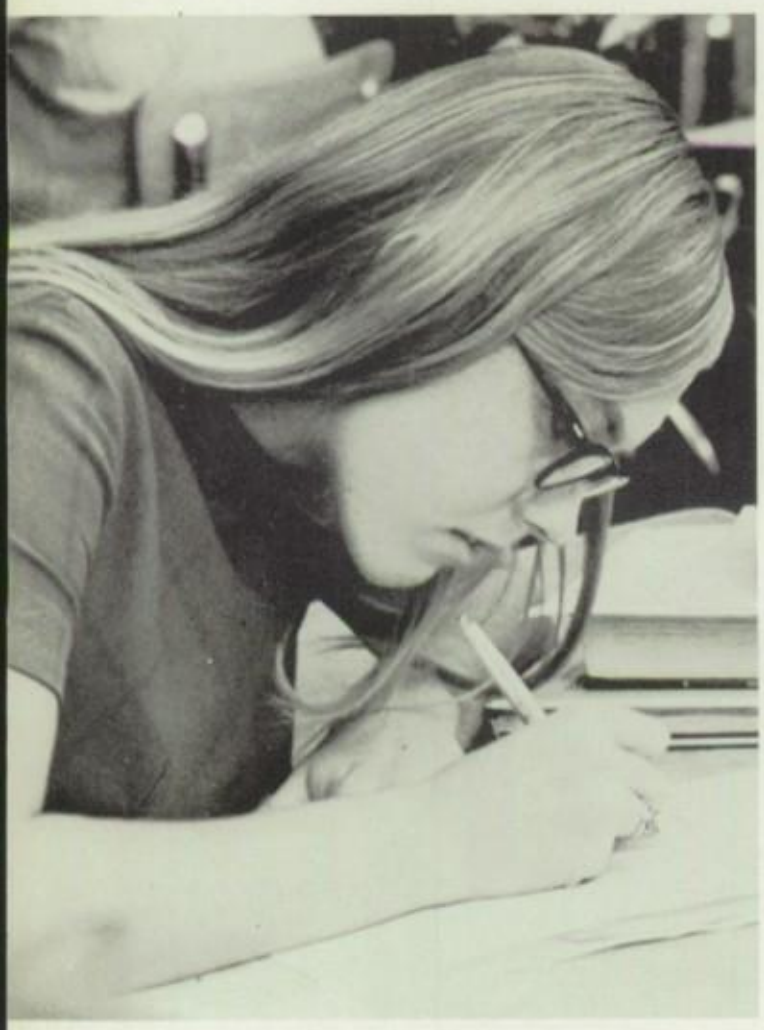
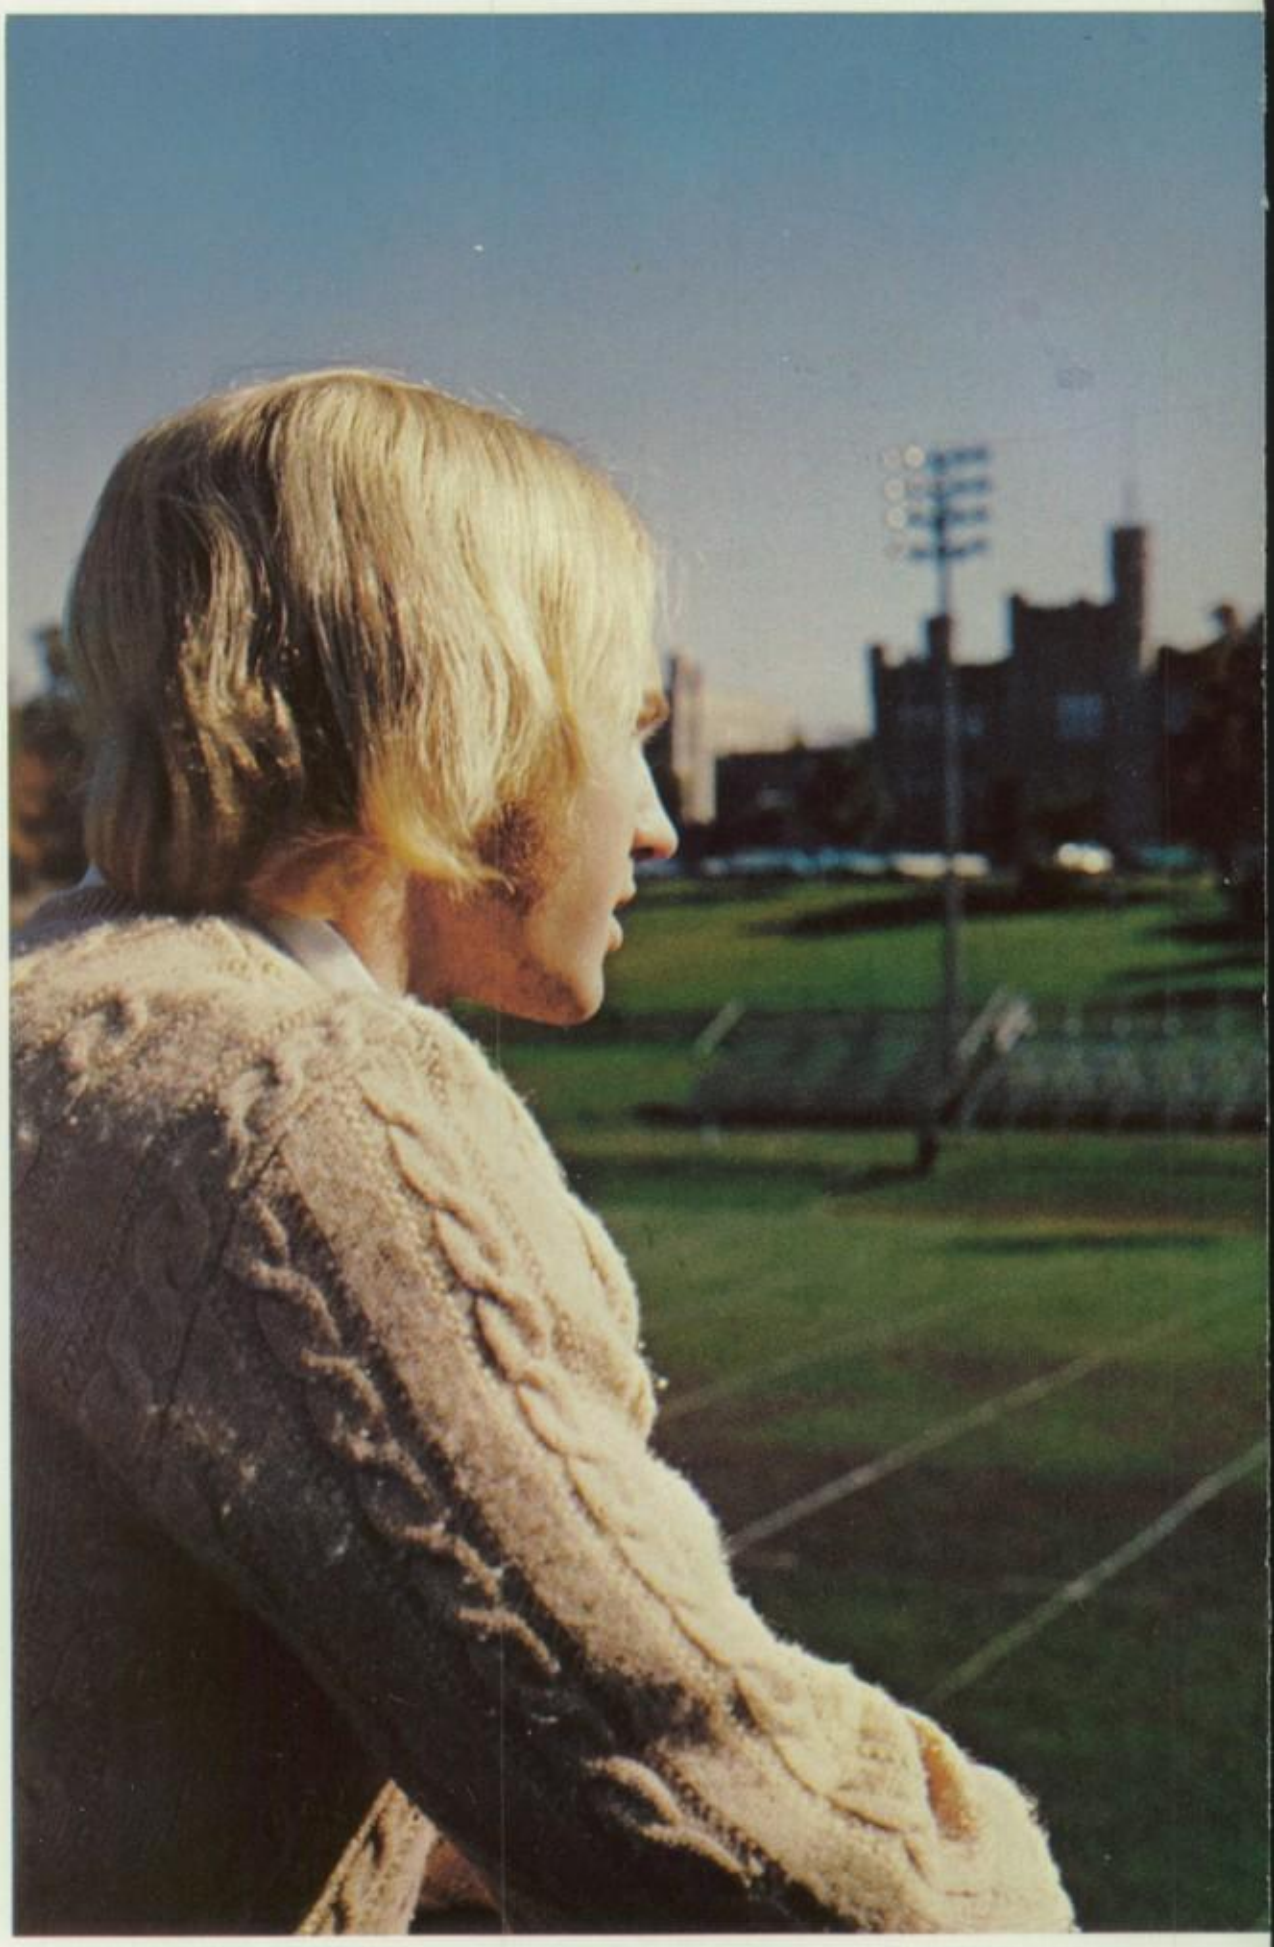
Decisions-
Changes

Decisions, changes. Elements of life that will always affect or afflict you depending upon the attitudes that you choose to take. Certain aspects of the school, administrators, and the students all interrelate to form an atmosphere that induces daily high school living. There are classes, complicated schedules for teachers as well as for students, relaxing times, and times when you must take a stark look into yourself to find where you're at. A time, now, to decide and to change.

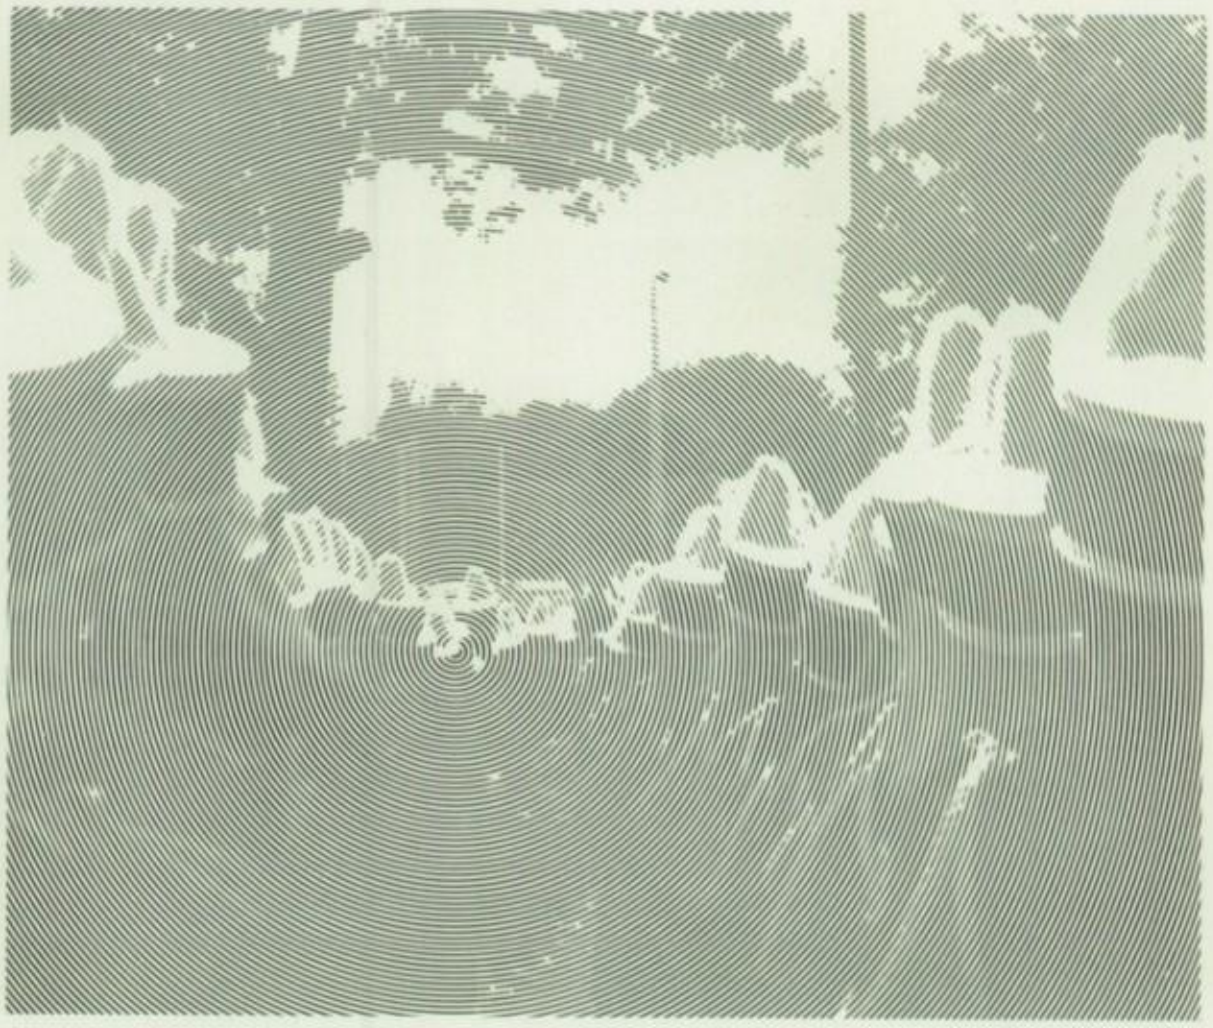
Summer Repairs

Changes, inside and out — results of reports by the superintendent to the board. They didn't seem that momentous at the time, sand blasting the castle, refinishing the gym floor and changing the walls, in some places, from "institution tan" to "cool green," but were important because everything was clean for the first day of school.





Teacher-principal conferences, itchy maroon uniforms, sweaty phys. ed. classes, or 17 pages of notes to study. These make up each year, and in the middle of it you've got to take the time to find out where you're at.



From the first day of school with classes, assemblies, everyone's unassigned time, you were kept busy by the new "mod" system. Your free time was your own and you could only marvel at the "idiots" in the rain and how it was one of the best times you ever had.

Decisions. Let comfort or school shoe rules overcome? vote Nixon or McGovern at the Republicratic Convention? attend the worst ball game of the season or stay home (weather-wise?) or take more subjects than books you can carry? You took the time to answer these questions and there was always someone around to record with pictures and words what the outcome was.

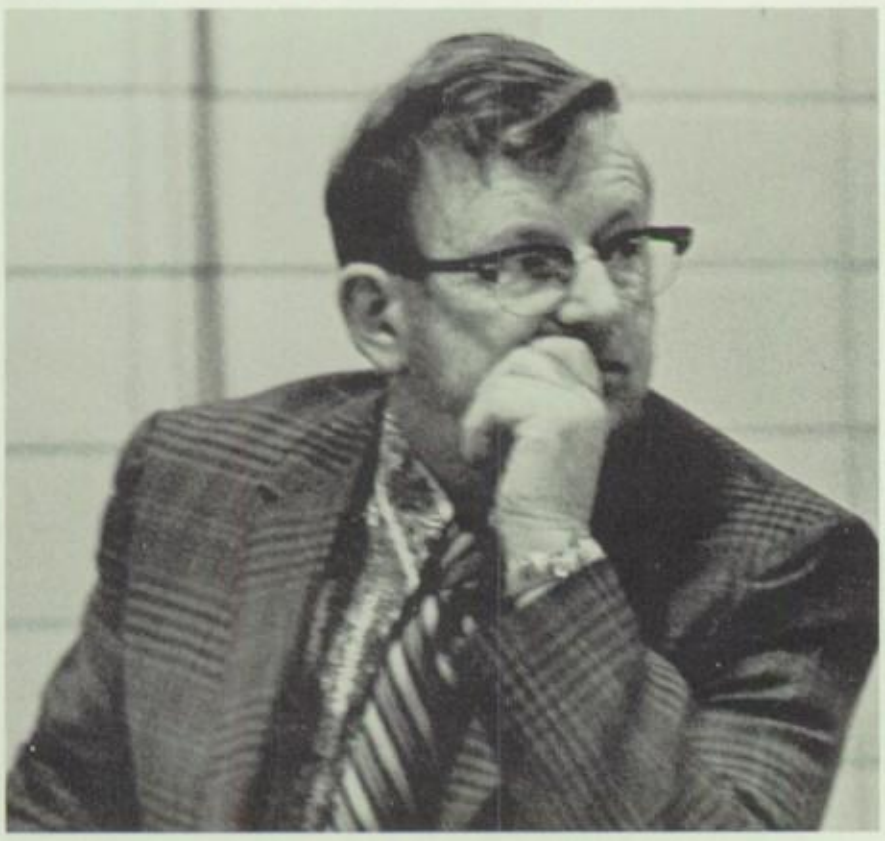
URBANA BOARD OF EDUCATION

A new president and vice-president were additional changes that the board enacted. Monthly meetings and work sessions led to several decisions. Support Hi-Point, award contracts, hire an architectural firm, and "re-do" things in schools that somehow get undone over the years. The board (upon recommendation) determines who will govern you and so they are a part of you and the changes around you.



Dr. Robert Livingston

Gary Bauer — Clerk

Superintendent Roe Hildreth

Elmo Layman

At the crossroads of the middle building is an office that you pass every day, but rarely think about. Behind these doors is the man directly responsible to the board of education and who, with his assistants, plans ways to improve the school system. The Superintendent, Roe Hildreth, along with Burr Simpson and Elmo Layman, are involved in almost every decision that concerns your education, but they are still close enough to you to attend assemblies when their schedules permit and to smile as they pass you in the hall.

Burr Simpson — Assistant Superintendent

Betty Nuzum, Secretary to the Superintendent

After many long years of service to the Urbana City Schools, Burr Simpson announced his retirement. Some students remember him as principal, most as a friend. The Board presented him with several "retirement" gifts and many wishes, and as he said his goodbyes, you saw an end to his pleasant Hellos in the halls.

Vicky Trout, Secretary

Helen Schetter, Secretary

Cooks — M. Haydn, M. Detwiler, M. Miller, M. Brooks, K. Gordley.

Parts of the administration saw change, things you welcomed and recognized. Under Mr. Borland's supervision, truancies were halted and suspended cases were regular sights on the absence lists. Mrs. Markley was at school every Thursday — available to listen to your problems. Mrs. Cooper, in a new office, continued dispensing money information so your class knew just how much it could spend. Perhaps the biggest change came in the new system of eating a la carte. Even with the changes — eating habits were so regular and the cooks so personable — there was occasional laughter when you got some new dish for lunch and they noticed.

William Borland — Athletic Director and Attendance Officer

Sue Markley, School Nurse

Nellie Cooper, Clerk Custodian and Secretary to the Athletic Director

Mildred Moran, Lunch Room Manager

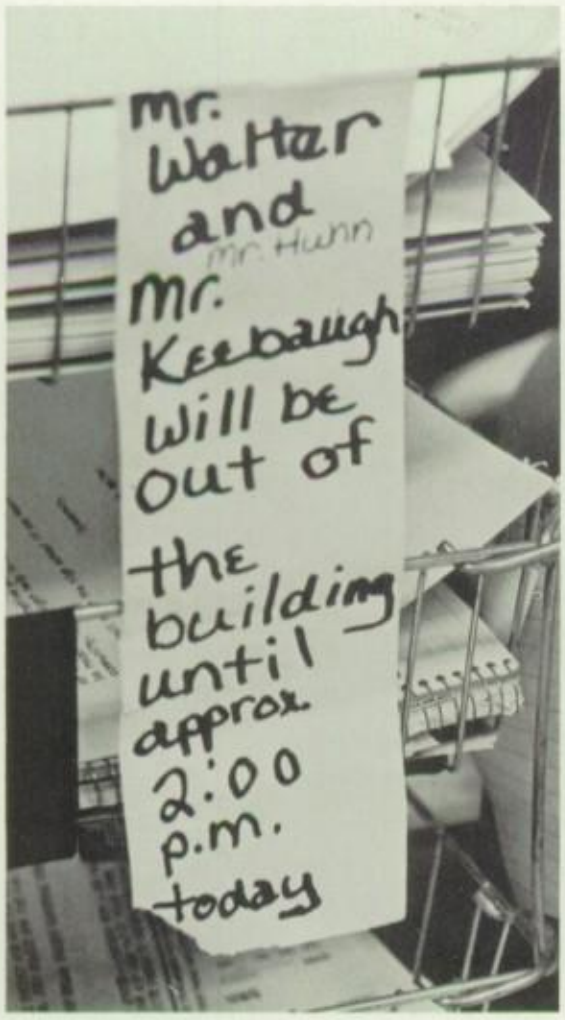
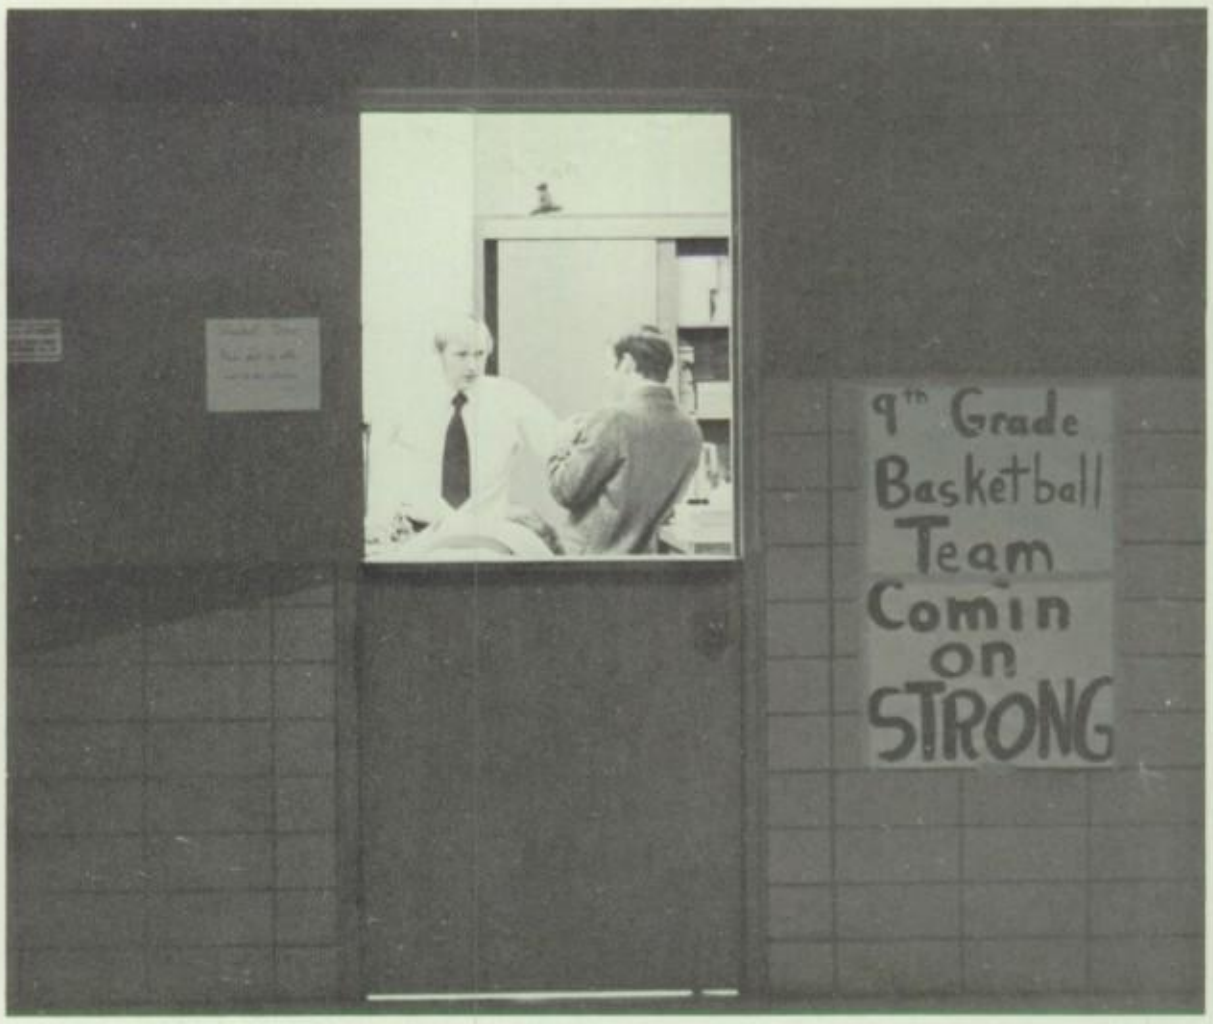
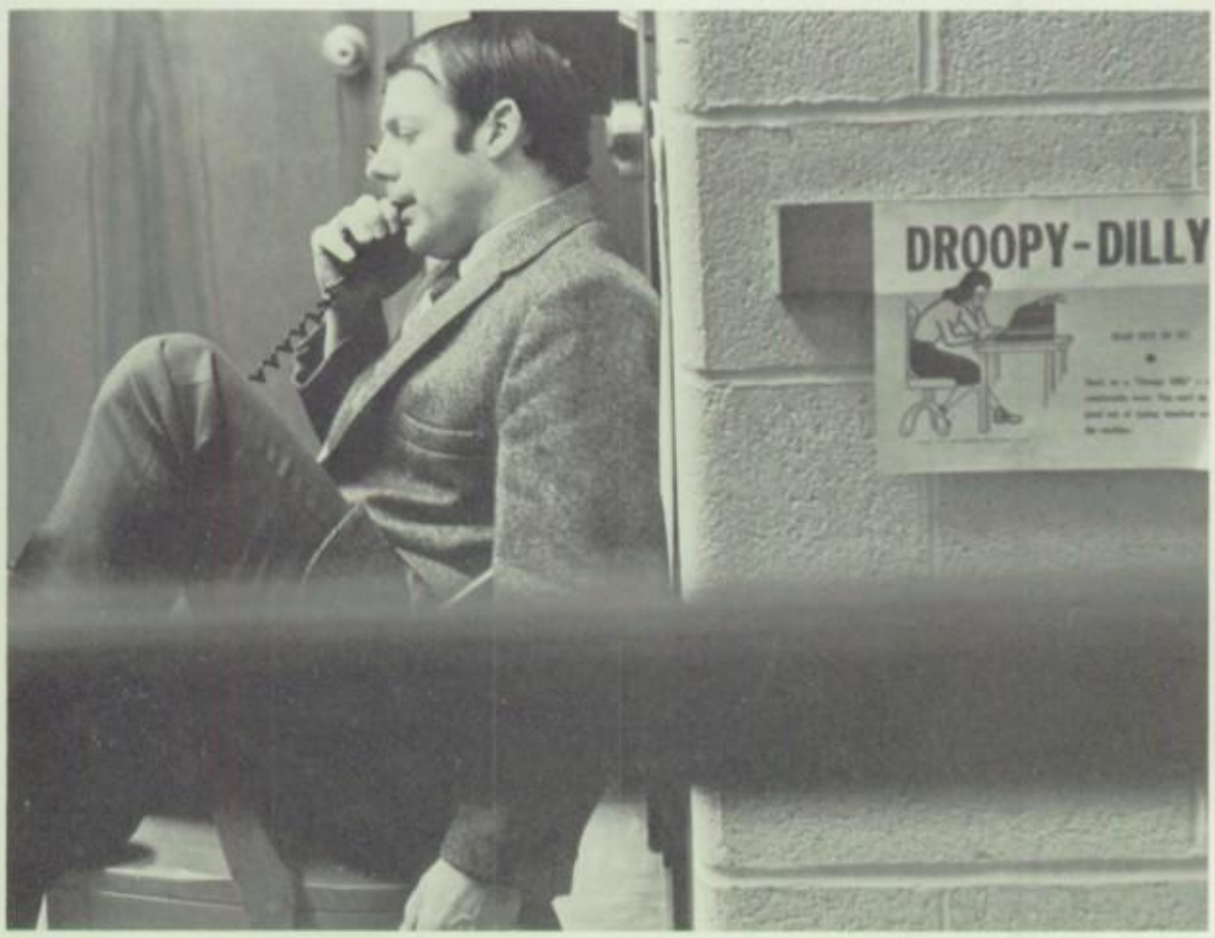
Principal Fred M. Walter





Assistant Principal Donald R. Keebaugh



The people we know who make a difference in our lives. The times they aren't here, the times they relax, have visitors and change. Mr. Walter and Mr. Keebaugh are the two men at U.H.S. who decide when assemblies are appropriate, what field trips are learning experiences and how much you can change within the framework of the school.

Secretaries

Of all the offices and secretaries, these two (and their helpers) were the ones you saw. They knew you, your transcripts, absences, activities, and whether or not you ever got into a hassle. They were friends.

Mrs. Anderson is secretary for Mr. Keebaugh.

Priscilla Rittenhouse always greets the principal's visitors.

OFFICE GIRLS — Front row: J. Lantz, M. Remer, L. Trenor, J. Leitenberger, T. Shockey. Second row: J. Schade, P. Bradford, D. Reed, R. Evilsizor, T. Craig, T. Stokes, K. GUIDANCE COUNSELORS

From California State in Pennsylvania, Curtis Huhn guides any students needing aid.

There was Mr. Huhn's "over the hill" birthday party and Mr. DeWitt's long illness, but throughout the year the students found many reasons to go to the office at the end of the hall. The atmosphere was quiet and no matter how emotional or troubled you seemed, the words of the counselors somehow soothed you enough to go on. They were intermediaries and friends and everyone needs someone like them.

John DeWitt (Ohio Northern) councils in addition to other duties.

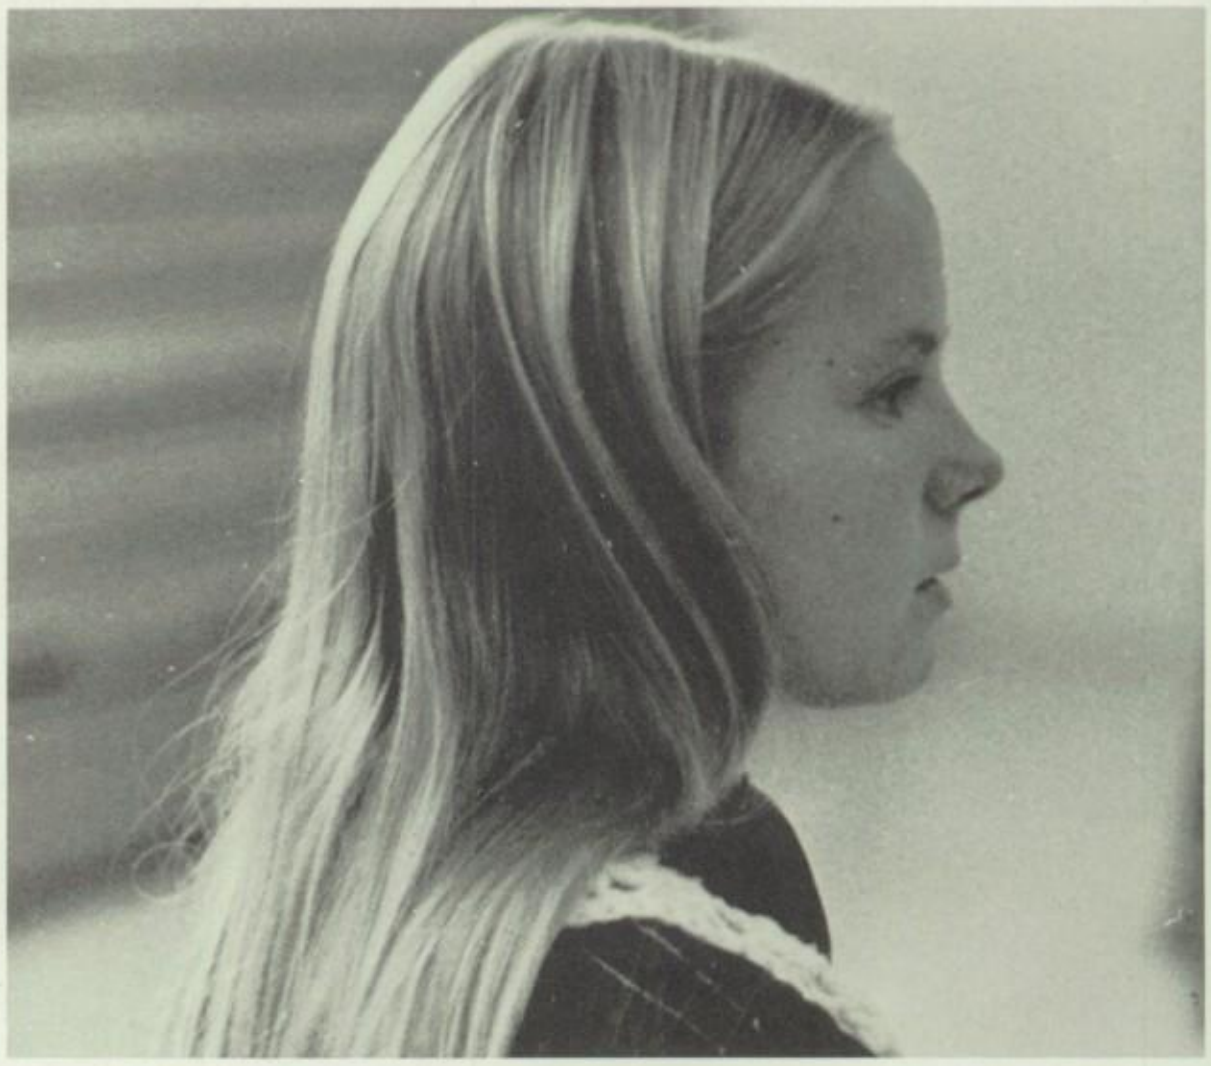
Girls' Sports

The UHS Girls' Athletic Association was enlarged this year — a change — enabling more students to participate in sports. The girls worked hard and had great success in learning how to cope with stiff competition. Coached partly by Mrs. Zerkle and Mrs. Torrey, the girls became experienced in the sports' world.



Carol Torrey (Miami) coaches high school girls' sports when not teaching elementary phys. ed.

VOLLEYBALL — Front row: K. Musser, D. King, J. Harrigan, C. Mefford, M. Richards. Second row: C. Culley, E. Harrington, D. Ballard, C. Evilsizor. Third row: Coach Torrey, A. Hunter, D. Bohl, T. Instine, S. Armstrong, M. Jones, M. Wilson, M. Donahoe, C. Culley, P. Dodd, D. Rieckhoff.

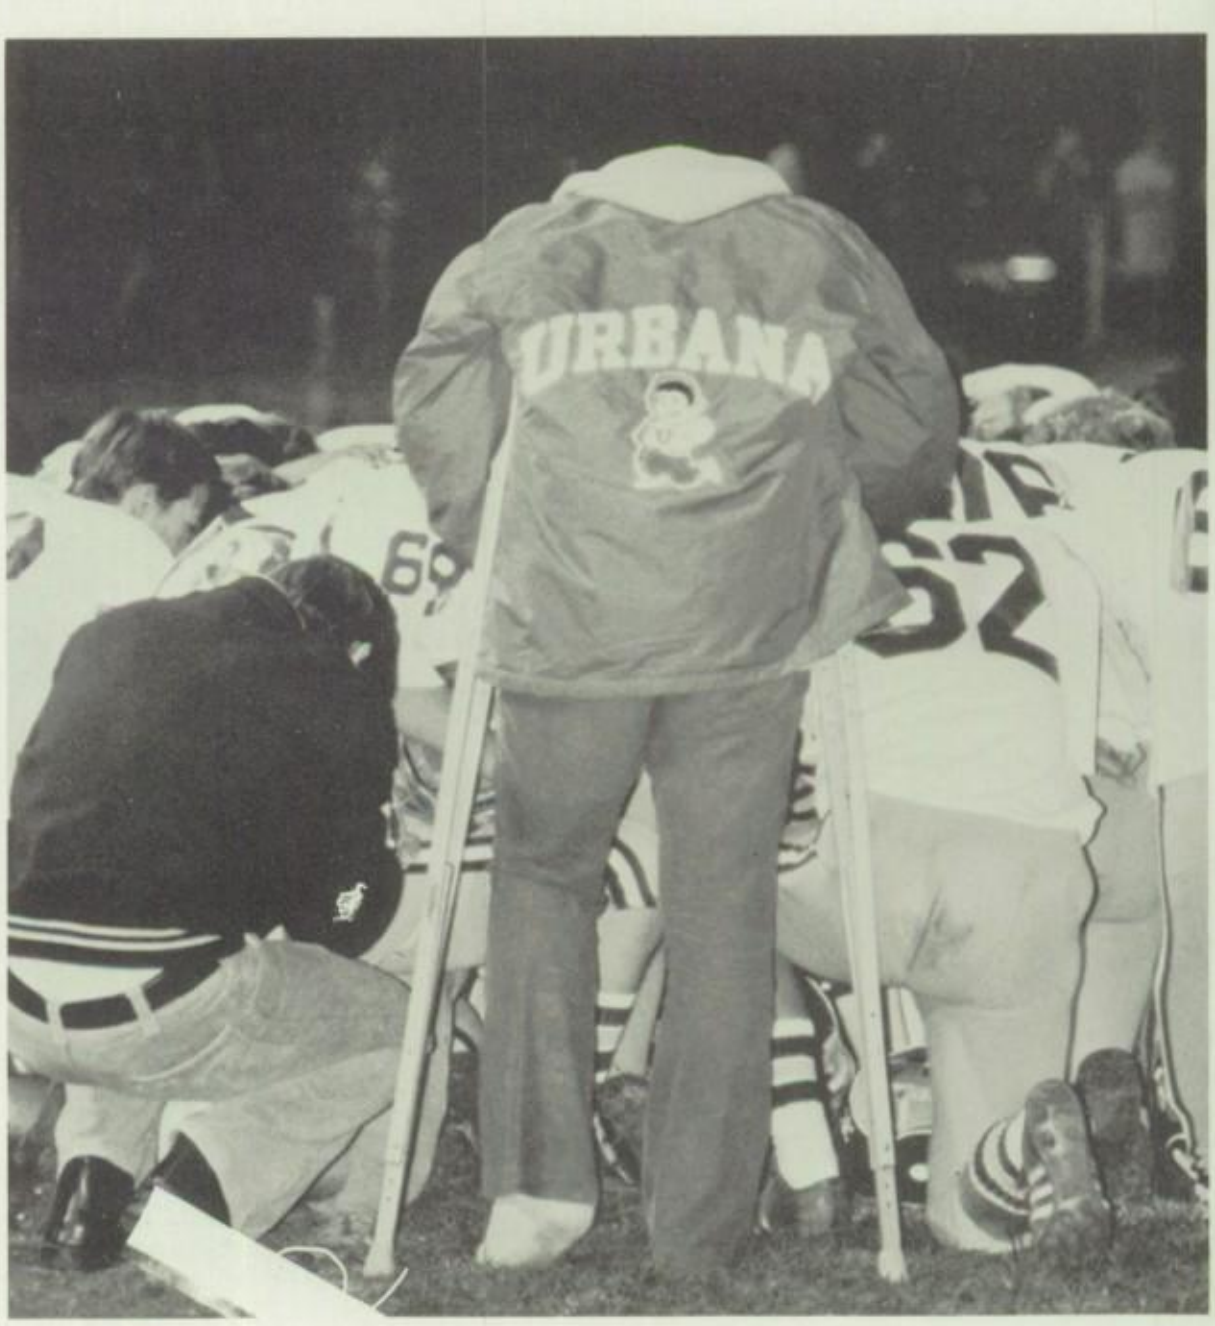
Football

More than an athletic event, football has come to be a regular social affair with tradition. The huge crowds all stand for the flag, but between then and the final seconds of the game there are team periods of silence, Sparky's antics and many supporters made up of people like you cheering, laughing, and wondering if the next quarter will be as good or better. Football is an important way of life to many people — the UHS teams prove it.



CENTRAL

Varsity and Reserve

4 Coaches and 2 teams (Varsity and J.V.) — working together from August to November. A special alliance formed between these people and only occasionally did you feel it. Under head coach Ramon DeCola (Xavier U.) and assistant coaches Art Flicker (Northwestern) and Bob Brenning and Jay Scott (Capitol U.) the UHS team merited a 3-6 record. Still a losing season, the gridders were real winners spirit-wise and they acquired the knowledge needed to have team togetherness.

Cross Country and Frosh Football

Effort, determination, and perseverance — indicative qualities of both the cross country and freshman football teams. Led by Coach Jerry Bentley, a graduate of Miami University, the cross country team finished with an impressive 8-3 record and finished high in district meets. The freshmen, with a 2-5 record, were led by Wendell Marratta, an Ohio University graduate and Bob Glessner from Urbana College.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL — Front row: A. Johnson, K. Barrett, B. Moss, J. Davis, J. Stillgess, A. Honore, C. Stuart, D. McCullough. Second row: H. Lucas, D. Hodge, J. Ireland, J. Kelly, R. Homecoming — "the" event of the year, made special with a visit by Miss America. The Queen and her court, now including freshman and sophomore attendants, attended the game and cheered, but Urbana went down to a defeat at the hands of rival Catholic Central.

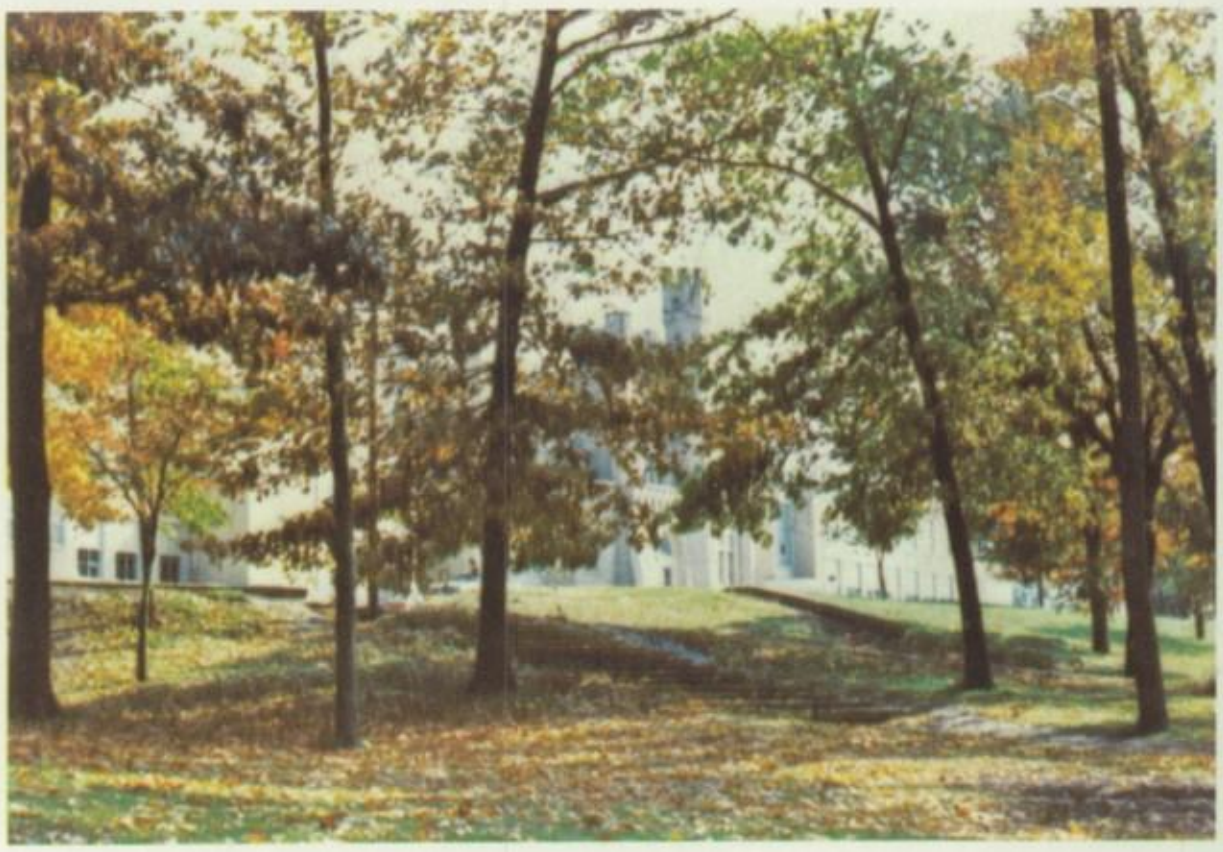
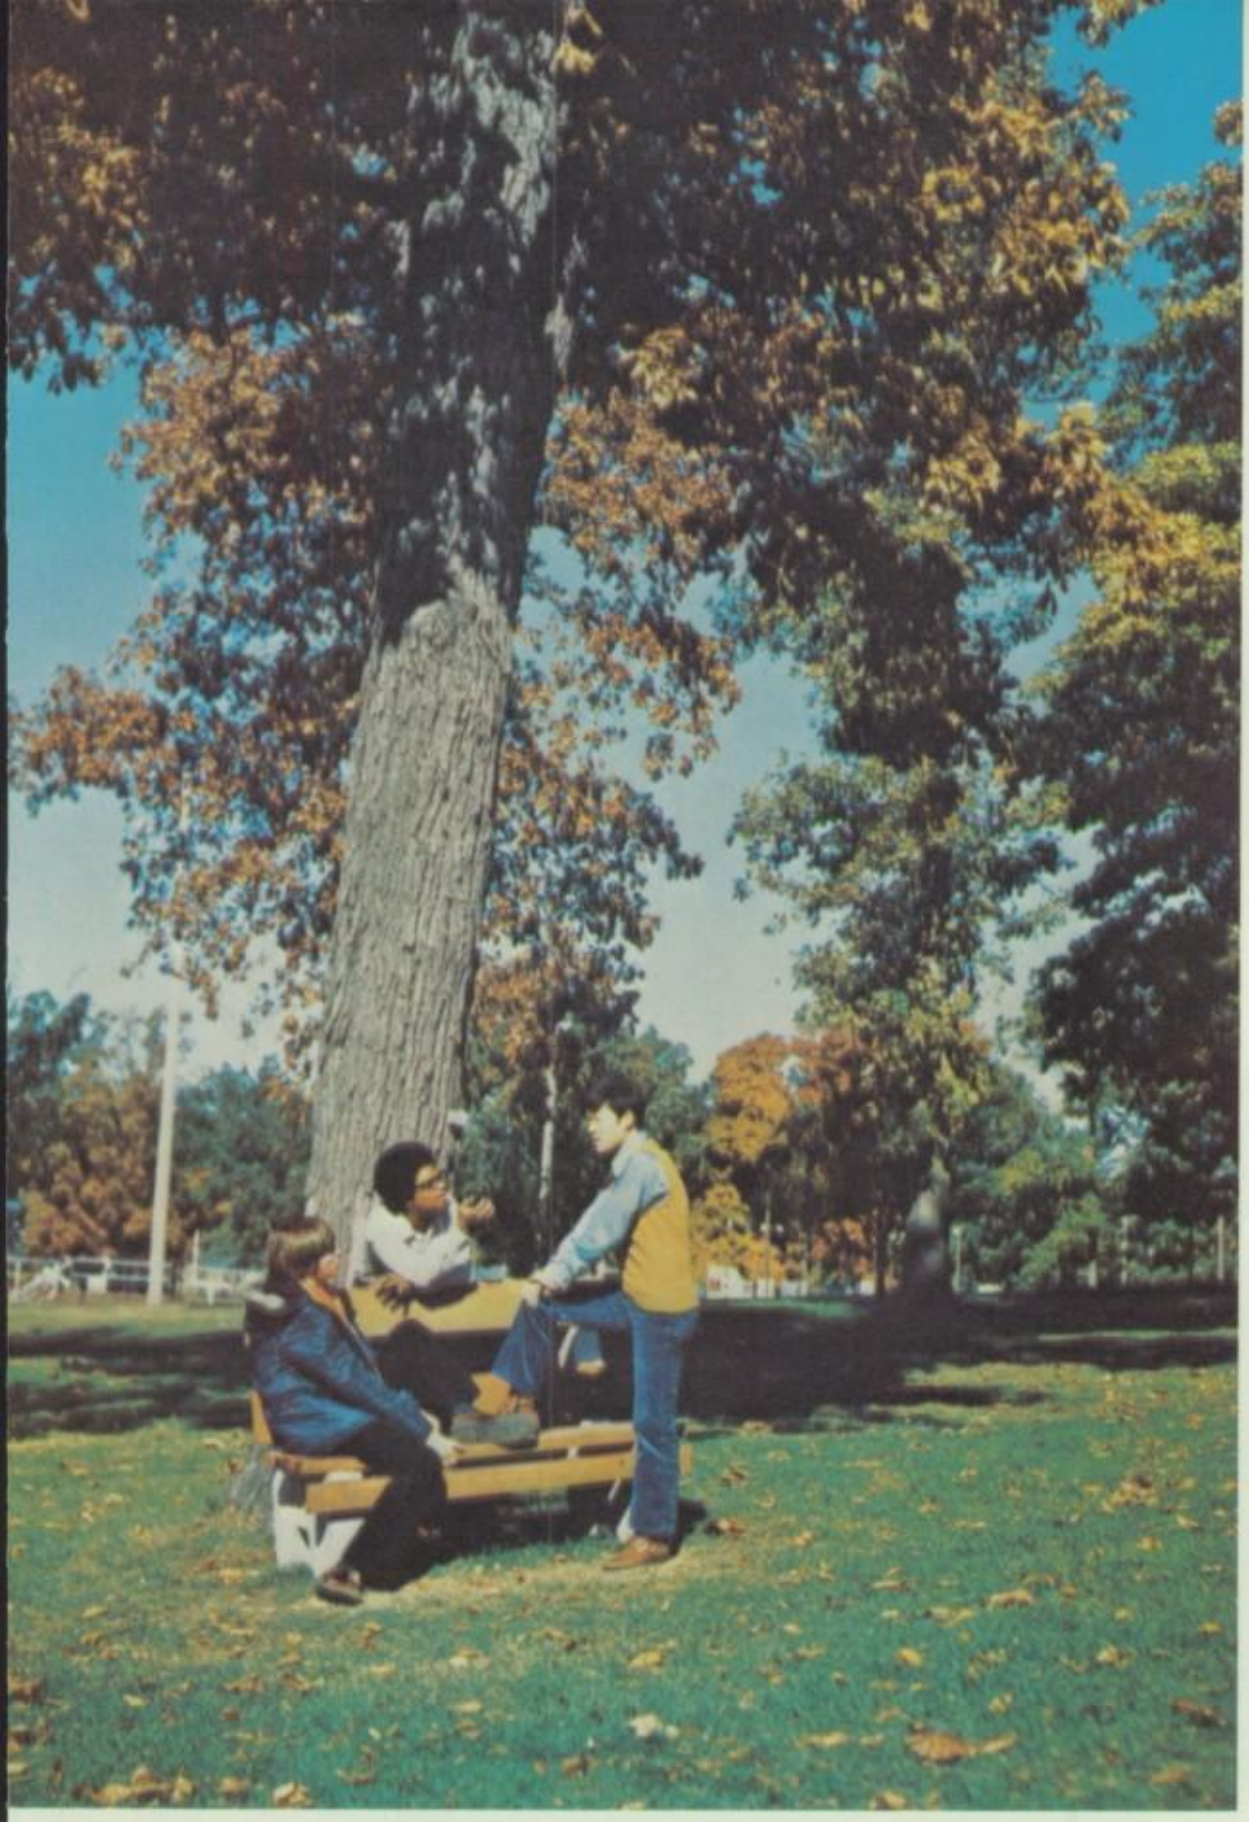
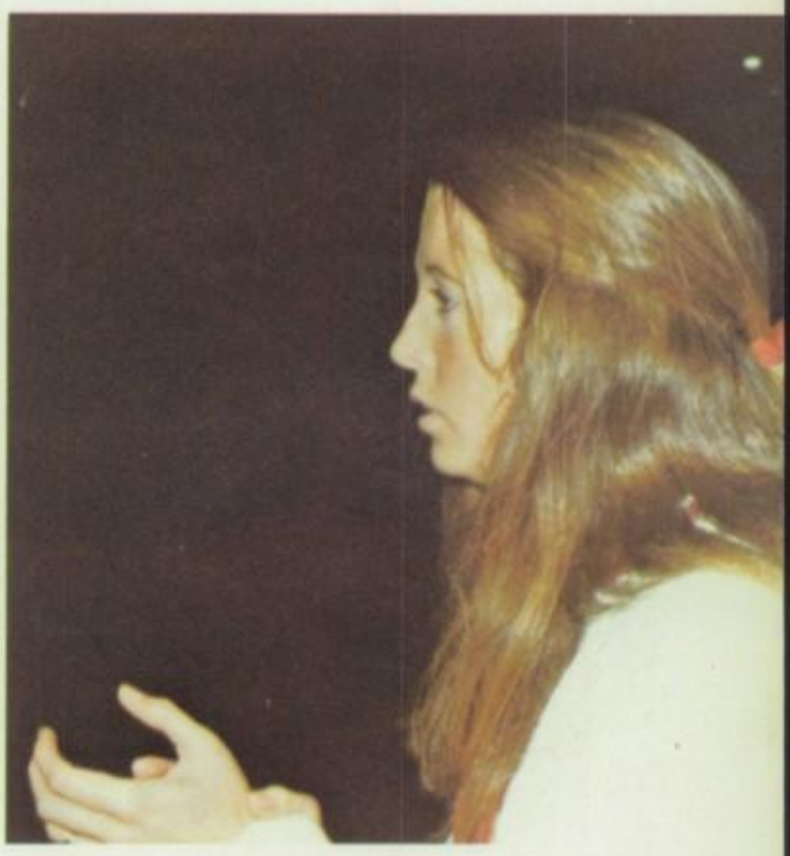
Fall . . .

U.H.S. is not all strict rules and decision. There are moments for you that will spark a colorful memory, and these good times will become your "good old days."







LAND OF THE DRAGON

The U.H.S. fall production, Land of the Dragon, was an all Thespian production and was directed by Marla Neighbarger. It told the tale of a beautiful princess who had to marry before her eighteenth birthday or relinquish her throne to her aunt. She meets and falls in love with the road wanderer and, with his uncanny ability to talk to animals, he arranges for the birds to stop the bell from striking until they wed.

Covet Spring plots with Lady Precious Harp.

21st, 22nd, and 23rd Cousins prepare the Princess.

CREW — Front row: R. Branstiter, M. Davis, M. McMann, G. Hartzler, J. Ream, M. Atherton, C. Ream. Second row: T. Galluzzo, P. Cobaugh, R. Meyers, K. Collins, C. Copeland. Ladder: S. Eleyet, D. Rickoff, T. Strome, B. Ward.

Road Wanderer calls to the birds to help him.

Eco-Sci Chronicle Math

Three clubs that exist in many schools assumed slight variations. The Math Club had more members than ever (perhaps because of Bounty Hunter?). The Science Club actively joined the ecology movement and became the Eco-Sci Club. The CASTLE CHRONICLE changed their format — became the NEW CASTLE CHRONICLE and even did a little redecorating in the basement room. Sponsored respectively by Marion Johnson, Lee Collins, and Marjorie Chance, the groups occupied spare time constructively and afforded limitless opportunities for achievement.

CASTLE CHRONICLE — Front row: P. Cobaugh, K. Collins, P. Alexander, M. McMahan. Second row: J. Hildreth, B. Ward, L. Smith. Third row: C. Johnson, B. Rupert. Fourth row: C. Cox, B. Student Council

Hardly any snow in winter but a blizzard in spring. An Ice Day (no school?) and always announcements about NO SNOWBALLS on School Grounds. Student Council sponsored White Christmas competition and declared the seniors the winners while Santa (DRK) Claus conversed with students and teachers about what gifts would please them most. It was only one of the efforts that the student representatives initiated to bridge the student-student, student-administration gap. They tried to help you get what you wanted so that you could get along.

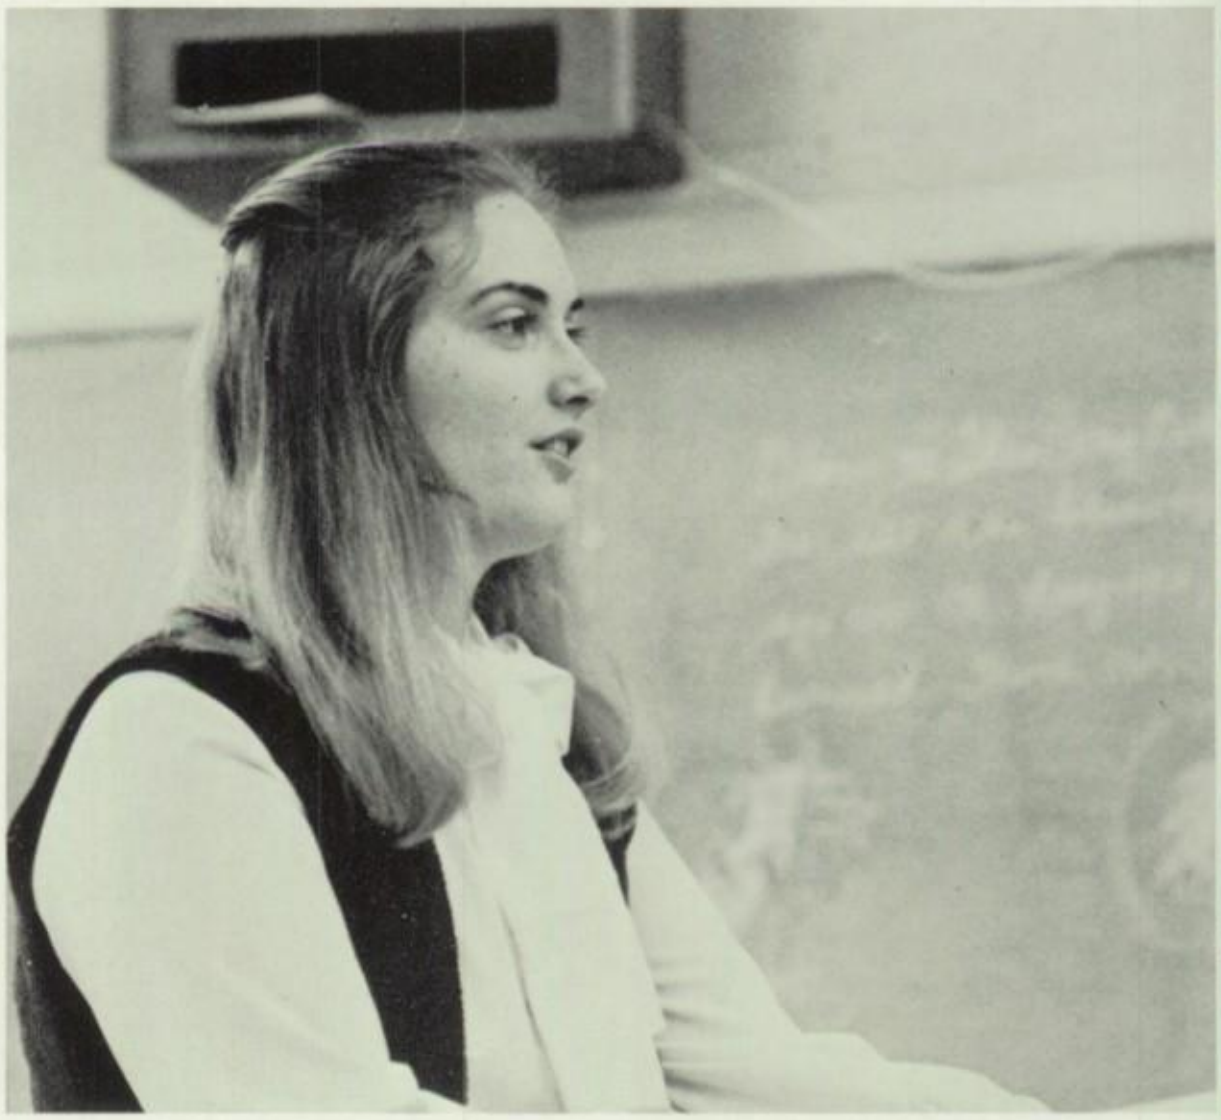
STUDENT COUNCIL — Top row: Mr. Kachele, S. Brandeberry, J. Gearon, T. Fox, C. Culley, P. Alexander, K. Carter, P. Faulkner, N. Lingrell, R. Gordon, D. Murphy. Second row: D. Michael, C. Cox, D. Boyd, R. Roosa, M. Richards. Front row: L. Pearson, J. Richards, M. Harrigan, M. Davis.

OFFICERS — T. Russell. M. Cotrell, S. Anderson, P. Woolley, D. Boyd.

Choir

Seventy kids . . . one "mom" . . . lots of work . . . and memories of tradition and times that can only happen when people really get along. There was contest-music, concert music, special performance music, pop music, graduation music and the music at the induction ceremony that culminated two years of togetherness for the seniors. There were a few rough spots (like being led by Pop Nolte at Christmas and finding a date for the formal induction ceremony that agreed with the administration) but it was there. Choir.



A graduate of Wittenberg University, Carol Bicking teaches all vocal music in the high school.

Greg Nolte III displays his talent.

The Lawnview workers, through Mrs. Chance's psychology classes, spent their study hall time at the new Lawnview School — helping the students. They acted as teacher aides and gained rewarding experiences. OWA, the Occupational Work Adjustment club, under the guidance of Mrs. Snapp, (OSU), spent their school time working either at the school or in private businesses. They also enjoyed several parties throughout the year. The SNA, Student Nurses Association, is a new club at UHS. The school nurse, Mrs. Markley, serves as advisor for the club. The highlight of the club this year was their participation in a mock disaster drill near Dayton. The Modern Language Club is a revamped combination of the French and Spanish students. They were able to hear many exchange teachers and businessmen this year and had their annual picnic in Springfield.

LAWNVIEW WORKERS — B. Puglia, M. Robison, Mrs. Chance, B. Russell, D. Wiant, C. Culley, K. Ogg, D. Woodruff, C. Bosworth.

OWA — V. Baumgardner, Mrs. Snapp, M. Adams, C. Saylor, H. Rose, J. McKellop, B. Castle, T. Baker, M. Current, G. Garvey, T. Fletcher, R. Brewer, B. Huffman, G. Geuy, R. Grim, J. Tacey, B. Moore.

CHEERLEADERS

Girls, Girls, Girls and two males. Zerk's workers through rain or shine, pep rallies and the 600 yard dash. Her office is a haven for females, but the guys fit in nicely and offer a sometimes exciting change to the routine.

Terrell runs through the traditional "U."

BASKETBALL

The strenuous effort of the three basketball teams yielded victory, defeat, and two trophies for the cases in the lobby. The reserve team received theirs in the Bellefontaine Holiday Tourney while the varsity won the AA Sectional Trophy in state competition. The banquet honored the entire team and the members set out immediately to train for the next and better season.

Urbana set for a U.H.S. victory.

BROADCASTING SPIRIT

Two groups were a driving force at sports events — especially at basketball games. The Pep Squad and Drill Team had several routines they performed under Mrs. Zerkle's leadership, and, if you missed the game in person, two groups broadcast it on radio.

WCOM comments on the team's achievements.

UNITED APPEAL

The United Appeal this year was different than any other. The room which collected the most money per pupil was to be honored and, when there was close to a tie, two classes were treated to breakfast cooked by the master chefs, FMW and DRK. The UA game consisted of intermural championships and the infamous teacher-student game. Somehow the end of the game looked like the U.S.-Russia game at the Summer Olympics, with the teachers winning at the buzzer. The Varsity U club represented the athletes of the school who play varsity sports.

VARSITY U — Front row: T. Wellbaum, L. Green, R. Green, E. McCall, J. Headlee, J. Enright, S. Brandeberry, R. Branstiter, Mr. DeCola. Ladder: G. Holden, J. Ladd, D. Yohey, B. Couts, G. Moore. Backboard: G. DeCola, D. Murphy, J. Harrigan.

Jeff: I thought I saw a fly in here.
Paul: I think I found it.

FMW — May I please speak to Betty Crocker?

DRK — Are they done when they're black or when they're ashes?

Teachers and cooks — Are eggs supposed to look like that?

WRESTLING — Front row: J. Healy, M. Lucas, G. Beatty, R. Hughes, J. Reich, J. Hildreth, D. Justice, S. Inskeep, C. Stewart. Second row: R. Meyers, T. Kerns, J. Kelch, T. Hunter, M. WRESTLING

A brand new sport was initiated at U.H.S. when coaches Scott and Flicker instructed young men in the art of wrestling. With the aid of the Booster Club, a mat was purchased as were 13 maroon and white uniforms. The season started commendably with a pin but Urbana was eliminated in tourney play at Urbana College. But the matmen have started a fine new tradition for the students to enjoy.

Grover Foulk is also a graduate of Ohio State University and taught AWE.

The two agricultural groups at U.H.S. had various school affairs. There were dairy judging, tractor pulls, growing crops, parliamentary procedure and sometimes, even times when milking cows was dangerous. The sound of the tractor was familiar causing everyone to know when spring finally arrived.

FTA

In class and out, the teachers are the people you remember in school. Whether you liked or disliked them, could talk openly or only manage a forced "Hi." They were concerned about what you learned in their classes and how the knowledge was (if ever) put to use.

Elaine Kern

The Urbana chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America won top honors this year. Ken Criffield won first runner-up in the radio advertising competition at the state contest after taking first at districts in Troy. Also winning district awards and competing at the state level were Jesse Noriega, Dennis Healy, Dave Murphy, and Dave Kitchen. Ken and Janie Wray, a 1971 U.H.S. graduate and winner of an Ohio DECA Scholarship this year attended the National DECA Career Development Conference in Atlantic City in May with Mr. Berns, the advisor of DECA and TOWER and a graduate of B.G.S.U.

The FBLA had several winners also this year. District winners at Dayton Fairmont West were Cheryl Addis, Roxanne Wiseman, Holly Snyder, Cheryl Snyder, Debbie Myers, Terrie Instine, and Tammy Brooks. State winners included Cheryl Addis, Jacque Miller, Dave Kitchen, Debbie Myers, Becky Cartwright, Cindy Lindsey, and Liz Humphrey. Advisors to the FBLA were Margaret Burton (Miami), Elaine Kern (Ohio State), Grace Leichty (Urbana College), and Barbara Gray (Wittenberg).

BAND

Band — a combination of sore legs and mouths (or arms) and itchy uniforms. The band played all the traditional events from Fair to Memorial Day. There was the Challenge system and its hassles and the ultimate challenge during the spring concert. Conducted by Bob Martin (O.S.U.) the band played loud, long, and hard. And good.

FORENSICS AND THESPIANS

The UHS drama department consisted of two groups — Forensics and Thespians. Under Ron Elliott (Bowling Green), Forensic members traveled each weekend to give performances for competition. Thespians produced a fall play under the guidance of Marla Neighbarger (O.S.U.). Both entertained you during the year at various functions.

TOWER TIME . . . spent searching, writing, and triplicating ideas in the form of a book. For staff, it was HANDS OFF of Mr. Berns' DECA equipment and trips to the store for a party. It was Tony and Kevin — always in Dayton and never where you needed them at the time. It was Steve leaving in the middle of the year but coming back in time to sneak crunchies with Jeff from MIKE FINK'S. There were Kathy and Becky — always with a layout to turn in; Cort with his "That lady is crazy" statement every day; Laurie running to the office; Tena making all of those Maylhaveyourattentionplease announcements, and Jackie knowing what needed to be done — if not exactly how to do it. It was hoping that you like it — TOWER '73.

The 1973 Spring Musical was a change from the usual format. Instead of just a few leads and a continuous flow of action, there were many star leads with solos and instances from Broadway. With original costumes and a large chorus, the musical highlighted Broadway, with emphasis on its lastingness. There were moments of pending tragedy before curtain time, but as musical director Carol Bicking (and the musicians) and director Ron Elliott entered, the audience settled back to enjoy an evening at the theater, witnessing both tender moments and bright, moving rock.

The Juniors — old faces with the same class problem, Homecoming. This year it was the mum sale. For the first time, the class officers required a sale of twenty mums to be eligible for Prom Planning. With all the problems that arose, an evaluation had to occur to get more effective results. Who will ever forget the Juniors' new idols, Vector Man and Bounty Hunter? Bounty Hunter kept kids from skipping Algebra even better than threatening detention did, and juniors all ask, "Hey Eddie, what happened to your Vector Man poster?"

"I don't know what it means, but it looks fun."

PROM

Despite all the problems the prom planners encountered, the prom was as good as ever. "Watashiwa Anataga Sukidesu" (I love you) gave the Urbana Country Club an oriental atmosphere with actual Japanese scrolls by Kenju. From 9 to midnight, UHS juniors and seniors and their guests danced to the music of Ginger Valley. After-prom activities included the movie "Sounder" and then to the College Community Center for swimming and dancing to the music of J. Foxx. Unfortunately, the band didn't show and a new problem arose for the prom planners. A reasonable solution was worked out with the students and students were left with beautiful memories and anticipation for the year's festivities.

PROM SERVERS — M. Richards, P. Alexander, N. Lingrell, J. Harrigan, T. Donahue, J. Shockey, K. Fenton, T. Gundolf, P. Harvey, L. LaRue, G. DeCola.

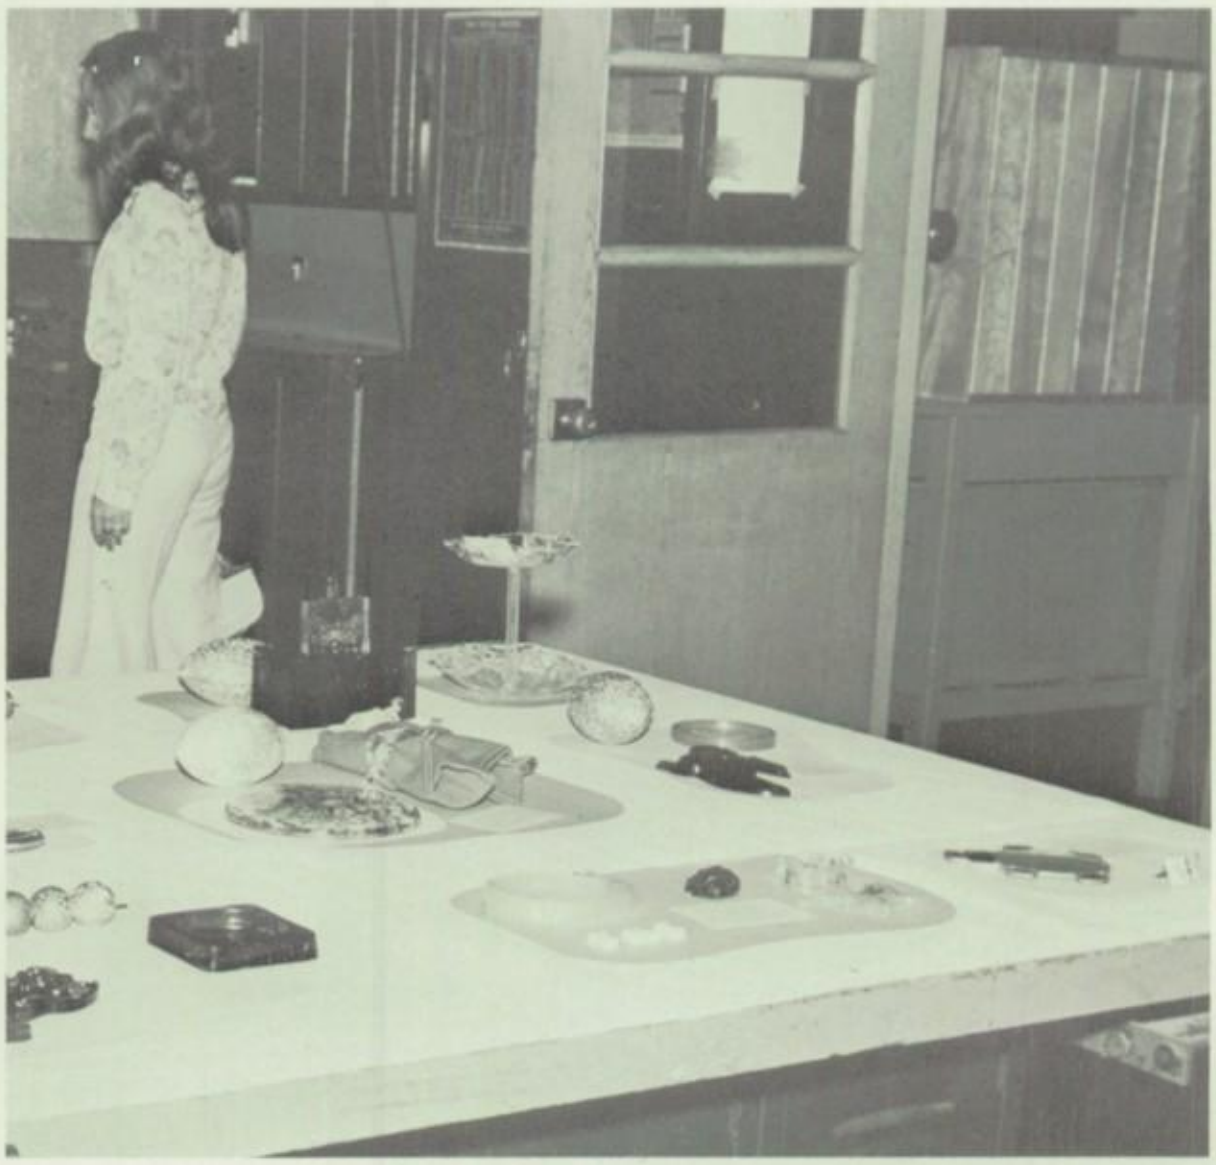
Night With the Arts

Night with the Arts — the annual display of Vo-Ag, Industrial Arts, Home Ec, and Art projects with nightly chorus and choir concerts brought the public up to the Castle. The departments added several new areas of interest — film-making, fashion shows, and live farm animals. Night with the Arts displayed all of the talent marking your growth and change in school.



Debbie Curtis in the fashion show.

Jody Johnson (OSU) replaced Mrs. Hupman during the year.

Jill Hupman (Miami) instructed in the area of Home Economics.

Sandy Eyman (OSU) helped coordinate the fashion show.

HOME ECONOMICS

FHA (Future Homemakers of America) concerned itself with acquainting the students with domestic skills. Although the club itself had only female membership, for the first time, males entered the department in the Bachelor Living program. The Homemakers' year culminated with a fashion show during Night with the Arts.

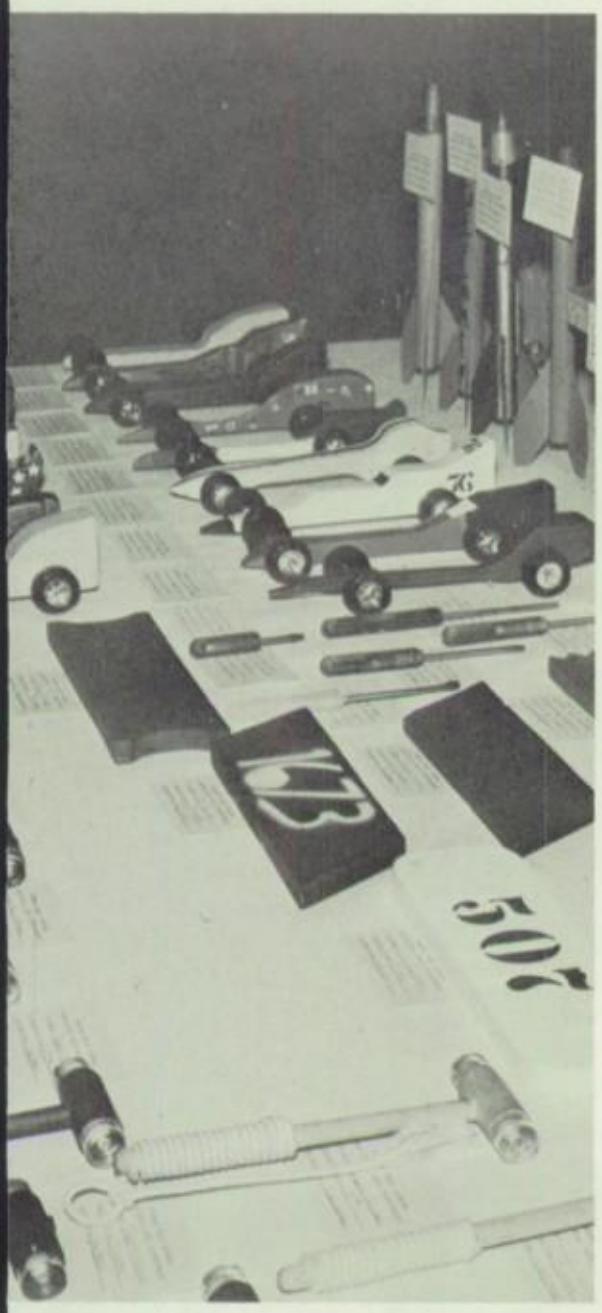
Ted Berlin, OSU, taught drafting, industrial crafts, and wood.



Ed Couts taught silkscreening and exploring metals.

SENIORS

David Grim — Vice-President, Lisa Bunch — Treasurer, Mrs. Anne Baker (OSU), Mrs. Arline Smith (Wittenberg), Debbie Boyd — President, Vicki Brattain — Secretary.

Being a senior — being different. Suddenly seeing yourself as others see you and wondering how you will look in the future. There were more assemblies, and better auditorium seats, even if it meant removing an underclassman. There was senior lounge, loftly walking the halls as if you owned them, desperately hoping that no teacher would stop and ask you for a pass. It started and ended with advisors Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Baker — knowing you would leave after four years and soon learning that Mrs. Baker, after 18 years, would also leave. Somehow you remembered her and Algebra I with happy thoughts, glad that you'd known her and you were leaving together. Being a senior — being different. Daring to try to change yourself in a system of rules — and winning . . . and knowing that the title has no meaning to others until it's been lived through.

Commencement

Through an inside rehearsal under threat of rain to the blistering Sunday afternoon practice, graduation seemed far away. Then, students gowned in maroon and white, disbelieving that they would soon be leaving high school, whispering excitedly in the processional and trying to put on a facade of seriousness. Listening to the speeches and waiting impatiently for the cues to stand, extending a firm right hand to greet Board President Edwin Kirby and saying something appropriate to Mr. Simpson and Mrs. Baker who were allowed to greet the last graduating class before their retirements. Finally, it was the Alma Mater, the lump that refused to let the lyrics surface and the recessional aimed at the Castle on the Hill where you laughed with friends. For awhile it was coming back to school on inane excuses, looking around and knowing that you lived for present and future based on your memories of the past.

Put a piece of original art work here.

Put some meaningful copy here . . .

No matter how long the TOWER Staff tried, they could never meet the needs of everyone who reads the yearbook. To rectify this situation, there is included a blank layout — one that you, the reader, must fill in with all that is important to you. Follow the staff's advice — Where there is a blank square, attach a picture of your choosing. Make it personal, make it you, and let it help you creatively express yourself.

. . . continue it here . . .

From beginning to end to new beginning — a continuous operation. Seeing the year as a progressive element;
cramming a lot of things into the end of the year — pictures without words, memories of your yesterdays, filled with things that are different — these are the things that made it unique.

THE EDUCATION GAME

FOR AGES 14-18 AND OLDER; EVERYONE CAN PLAY; NOT SUGGESTED DURING JUNE, JULY OR AUGUST

MATERIALS NEEDED

1 marker for each player 4 years
1 spinner marked up to 5 or 1 die

RULES

1. Each player chooses a marker.
2. Oldest player spins first and moves the number of spaces indicated.
3. When a player lands on a block, he moves as instructed.
4. No cheating, copying, or skipping turns (unless indicated.)

Tips: 1. Play in 9 segments. Because of the many playing squares and possibilities of turn combinations, the players may become bored or annoyed.

Tips: 2. Be prompt on your moves — DO NOT hold up the other players.

GOAL

The first player to march completely up the high school hill wins and receives a diploma stating his achievements. (Extra diplomas may be secured by ordering from the high school principal's office, 500 Washington Ave., Urbana, Ohio)
